

for requests all those desiring his services as a dentist to call early. His charges for work is most reasonable and his work is satisfactory, as can be attested by a large number of our citizens.

Jesse treat is up from Needles this week.

Mrs. George Lybeck of Grand Rapids, Mich., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. J. T. McWilliams.

Dan Hogan, the Rough Rider, went to Holbrook Monday to again handle the hammer and saw.

Dr. E. S. Miller has removed his office and residence to B. C. Olney's house on Beaver street.

The board of supervisors have been in session all week, and elsewhere in this issue will be found a report of their work.

The family of Prof. Malvern Dimmick arrived from Springfield, Mo., on Saturday. They will occupy the Lamport residence.

B. F. Crabb, holiness evangelist, will preach in the Presbyterian church Sunday, October 9, at 3 p.m. Everybody is invited.

Arizona apples are in the market now. Nine wagon loads were brought here during the week. They came from Tuba City and from Tonto Basin.

The work on the water system is progressing finely, and if no bad weather interferes water will be distributed through the water pipes by January 1, 1899.

Henry Sells returned Sunday from the campaign at Santiago. He was one of the boys who joined the Rough Riders and served throughout the war with Spain.

G. A. Bray is making the race for the council in Yavapai county on the republican ticket and Coconino will have a firm friend in the council.

G. S. Bartholomew, who has been here for the past two weeks, left for Los Angeles yesterday. He did not succeed in starting a lodge here and reached the conclusion that eight secret societies in a town the size of Flagstaff was enough.

D. B. Lyons, the well known negotiator of bonds and promotor of investments, after an eighteen months residence in Chicago, has returned to Des Moines, Ia. Mr. Lyons is interested in some of the most valuable copper mines in the Grand Canyon mining district in this county.

F. S. Breen, superintendent of the San Francisco Mountains and Prescott forest reserves, returned Wednesday from a trip to Prescott. Mr. Breen says that the more he sees of Arizona the better he likes it, and that the territory will become in the near future one of the prosperous states of the union.

James Myers, who for the past three years has been employed by the Arizona Lumber and Timber company as timekeeper, died suddenly Thursday evening of hemorrhage. He had just finished supper and was on his way to his room when taken sick and died before he could be moved. Deceased came here from Cincinnati. The funeral takes place today.

A party consisting of Mrs. North and son of Chicago, Miss O'Donnell of St. Louis, Rev. F. Connolly of Winslow and Mrs. N. A. Cameron of this city returned from the Grand Canyon, where they have been for the last week.

Rev. J. M. Baxter, who is appointed to Flagstaff charge M. E. church, has written that he cannot be in Flagstaff until after Sunday the 9th. It is suggested that the Methodist congregation unite with the Presbyterian for that day in view of the above information.